Free Fall Prevention Training

UNLV's Construction Management Program, in conjunction with the School of Nursing, is offering a free OSHA-approved Fall Prevention Training class from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 15, 2011, at the MPE Building, located at Harmon and Swenson Streets on the UNLV campus. A certificate for this five-hour training course will be awarded upon completion of the class.

To reserve a place in class, call: (702) 895-3572. The RTC Paradise Route 108 and Flamingo Route 202 buses service this area. UNLV will reimburse transportation costs up to $5. Parking is free for those who attend and drive themselves.

Free OSHA 10 training is also being offered from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., Jan. 21 and 22, 2011, at UNLV. Completion of the Fall Prevention Training class is required in order to enroll in the OSHA 10 class.

For more information on the OSHA 10 training course, call: (702) 895-3572.
