BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST CONTRACTOR

(Reno, NV) – At its meeting on March 11, 2003, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated a case against Darryl Banks Construction.

Darryl Banks Construction, license numbers 25817 (Residential and Small Commercial) and 25817A (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Reno, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure comply with a notice to correct; disregard of state building laws; failure to obtain proper lien releases; failure to establish financial responsibility; failure to report to the Board a change in address or personnel; and failure to provide required disclosures. The Board revoked the license of Darryl Banks Construction.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.

The Board will convene next in Henderson, NV on March 25, 2003.
