CONTRACTORS BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST FOUR CONTRACTORS

(Las Vegas, NV) - At its meeting on Oct. 20, 2005, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving four contractors.

A New Beginning Floor Design Corp., license numbers 54565 (Finishing Floors) and 56340 (Tiling) based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship and failure to comply with regulations of the Board. The licensee was assessed the cost of the investigation and ordered to submit to a Business Review.*

Finishes Unlimited., license number 49592 (Painting and Decorating) based out of Henderson, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for abandonment of a construction project; diversion of money or property; failure to respond to a written request from the Board; failure to provide required Residential Recovery Fund disclosures; failure to include license number and monetary limit on a contract or proposal; failure to establish financial responsibility; and failure to comply with a written request from the Board. The Board revoked the license of Finishes Unlimited, required licensee to make full restitution to all damaged parties and assessed the licensee the cost of the investigation.

Gary J. Morrison Holding, Inc. dba Anderson Closets and Cabinets., license number 52616 (Fencing and Playground Equipment) based out of North Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to complete a construction project for the stated price; failure to respond to a written request from the Board; failure to include license number and monetary limit on contract or proposal; misrepresentation of a material fact; failure to establish financial responsibility; failure to comply with a written request from the Board; and failure to report to the Board a change of address or personnel. The Board revoked the license of Anderson Closets and Cabinets and required the licensee to make full restitution to all damaged parties and assessed the licensee the cost of the investigation.

Lawrence Raymond Stoeckinger, Jr. dba Stockinger Construction. license number 48951 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Pahrump, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for combining with an unlicensed person to commit an unauthorized act; knowingly entering into a contract while the contractor is not licensed or bidding to contract with a contractor beyond the scope of his license; bidding in excess of the monetary limit place by the Board; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; failure to comply with a written request from the Board; failure to establish financial responsibility; and failure to include license number and monetary limit on contract or proposal. The Board revoked the license of Lawrence Raymond Stoeckinger, Jr. dba Stockinger Construction, required the licensee to make full restitution to all damaged parties and assessed the licensee the cost of the investigation.

The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
