CONTRACTORS BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST EAST SLOPE BUILDERS

(Henderson, NV) - At its meeting on Nov. 7, 2007, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated the case involving one contractor.

East Slope Builders, license number 38737 (Residential & Small Commercial), based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to pay any money due for materials and services; substandard workmanship; failure to comply with the terms of a construction contract; and contracting with an unlicensed person. The licensee was fined $4,000 and ordered to pay investigative costs and pay $3,831.66 in restitution to the homeowner. The license is suspended for 60 days.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
