CONTRACTORS BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST FOUR CONTRACTORS

(Reno and Henderson, NV) - At its meetings on Dec. 5 and 6 2007, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving four contractors.

Classic Fence Co., license number 58352 (Fencing & Equipment Playgrounds) based out of Minden, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with the Board's Notice to Correct; failure to include the monetary license limit and license number on a contract or proposal; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $2,850 and ordered to pay $4,234.90 in restitution to the homeowner, pay investigative costs and reimburse the Board for any monies paid out of the Residential Recovery Fund. The license was revoked.

Dayton Valley Floral & Nursery, license number 38395 (Landscape Contracting), based out of Dayton, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to comply with the terms of the construction contract and failure to comply with the Board's Notice to Correct. The licensee was fined $1,500 and ordered to pay investigative costs.

Corbett Construction, license numbers 59138 and 54479 (Residential & Small Commercial), based out of Sparks, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; failure to provide the name, license number, business address and telephone number of all subcontractors on the project; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $3,100 and ordered to pay investigative costs and provide a current financial statement.

Sierra West Construction Co., license number 27466 (General Building), based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to pay money due for materials and services and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee ordered to pay investigative costs, provide a current financial statement and pay $83,029 in restitution

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
