FIVE NEVADA CONTRACTORS DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

(Reno, NV) – At its meeting on July 9, 2008, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving five contractors.

Wright Outdoor Center, license number 51599 (Pools & Spas of Fiberglass), based out of Sparks, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with the Board's notice to correct; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $1,500 and ordered to pay investigative costs. The license was cancelled.

CPC & Associates, Inc., license number 52090 (General Building), based out of South San Francisco, CA, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with the Board's notice to correct; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; failure to provide the name, license number, business address and telephone number of all subcontractors on the project; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $7,300 and ordered to pay investigative costs. The license was revoked.

Perfect Pavers, LLC., license number 68063 (Masonry), based out of Sparks, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to keep in force a bond or cash deposit and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $750, ordered to provide a current financial statement and pay investigative costs. The license is suspended.

Waynes Plumbing, LLC., license number 44525A (Plumbing), based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to respond to a written request from the Board; failure to comply with a written request from the Board; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $3,000; ordered to pay investigative costs; and pay restitution to the damaged parties. The license was revoked.

Summary Suspension

The Nevada State Contractors Board took proactive action on July 9, 2008, by summarily suspending the following license, after several complaints were received on the company:

J E Morros Construction & Development Co., license number 29571A, (Residential & Small Commercial) based out of Sparks, NV.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to promoting the public confidence and trust in the competency and integrity of licensed contractors and to protecting the health, safety and welfare of the public.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
