THREE NEVADA CONTRACTORS DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

(Reno, NV) – At its meeting on March 11, 2009, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving three contractors.

Daniel William McGlynn, dba Dan McGlynn Construction, license number 52592 (Residential & Small Commercial), based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to comply with the terms of a construction contract, thereby causing material injury to another; failure to comply with the Board's notice to correct; substandard workmanship; failure to obtain the discharge of a lien; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $4,600; ordered to pay investigative costs and make full restitution to all damaged parties and reimburse the Board for any monies paid out of the Residential Recovery Fund, plus fines and investigative costs. The license was revoked.

Hamlin Development Co., Inc., license number 47827A (Residential & Small Commercial), based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for failure to complete a construction project; diversion of funds; failure to pay money due for materials or services; failure to respond to a written request from the Board; failure to provide the name, license number, business address and telephone numbers of all subcontractors on the project; failure to keep in force a bond or cash deposit; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $3,750; ordered to pay investigative costs and make full restitution to all damaged parties and reimburse the Board for any monies paid out of the Residential Recovery Fund, plus fines and investigative costs. The license was revoked.

Steve Charles Yon, dba Alpine Fence, (Fencing & Guardrails) based out of Incline Village, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for allowing a license to be used by an unlicensed person and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $200; ordered to pay investigative costs and make full restitution to all damaged parties and reimburse the Board for any monies paid out of the Residential Recovery Fund, plus fines and investigative costs. The license was revoked.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
