VEGAS CONSTRUCTION AND REMODELING DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

(Henderson, NV) – The Nevada State Contractors Board recently adjudicated its case involving Vegas Construction and Remodeling.

Vegas Construction and Remodeling, LLC., license numbers 58293 and 65321 (Residential & Small Commercial and Carpentry) based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; willful disregard of the building laws of the state; and for the partnership, corporation, firm or association participating in a prohibited act. The licensee was fined $17,100; ordered to pay investigative costs and submit to a business review.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
